

Declaration

I, Liu, J.C, expressed explicit and repeated criticisms against Professor Chien-Lung Hsu's work, the Financial Crisis Research: a Bibliometric Analysis, in public media. After discussing, clarifying and explaining the criticisms with Professor Chien-Lung Hsu in person, I declare as follows:

1. I concluded an agreement with Chien-Lung Hsu that misunderstandings in the past had been elucidated, academic exchange will be strengthened and that I will refrain from expressing explicit criticisms against any individual in the future.
2. Professor Chien-Lung Hsu's work has been approved by departmental teacher evaluation committee, institutional teacher evaluation committee, anonymous external evaluation and the Ministry of Education. Furthermore, his work has already been accepted by a journal of international prestige, whose impact factor is 2.084 according to the SSCI index. The contribution of his work has thus been conformed of academic value.
3. It is normal for scholars from non-English speaking departments to commit grammatical errors whilst writing. These errors, however, will not hinder the usability of the whole parts of an academic article.
4. After meeting with Professor Chien-Lung Hsu, I realized that he had accumulated many years of experiences in the industry before he decided to return to school and obtained a Ph.D. in Management. His professionalisms along with practical experiences facilitates students' learning, making him admirable.

I hereby declare that the above statement is true.

Signature:

Ren-chang Liu

Adjunct Assistant Professor in Takming University of Science and Technology and author of perspective with Storm Media

June 20th 2017