RE: Varun Kersherwani
Our File No. 21912.000

Dear Mr. Marcus:

Thank you for your e-mail of December 15, 2014.

I wish to correct one thing in my letter to you of December 15, 2014. The cite in paragraph 1 on the first page should not be deleted. Only the cite in paragraph 2 should be deleted.

The portion of your blog that Mr. Kersherwani objects to is the phrase, "But it seems Keshewani, who was listed as the paper's corresponding author despite his junior status, did not have his mentor's blessing when he submitted the manuscript." "[H]e had not received permission to use the data . . ."

Those portions of the blog should be deleted immediately.

Please confirm in writing that this is being done. Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Michael A. Nelsen
