Dear Dr. Iqbal,

I have great news. The retraction has been, finally, and completely, approved. The Journal Manager of Fuel had put in the request to have the retraction posted and the article taken down.

I am sorry that it was such a process, thank you for your patience.

Best,

Kathleen

Thank you, Kathleen. It's really great news. Now, what are the final comments? Can you please share that as well?

Thanks

Farukh Iqbal
