Hi Dear Doctor,

I hope this email finds you in excellent spirits!

The time has come to recognize the value of your connection to the Scientific Community. Please take a moment to consider our request, and thank you in advance for your attention.

This notification was sent to you in the month of August, 2025 but the submission has not been received due to your busy schedules.

We are pleased to reach out to you with an exclusive opportunity. Your work as an esteemed contributor in the scientific field has always been a beacon of excellence. The journal is gearing up for its next issue, and we believe your latest research would be a perfect fit.

The journal is planning to publish high-quality manuscripts and would be honoured if you could submit a paper on your current research interest.

Submission Deadline: November 07, 2025

Note:

- This timeline is required for preparation of quality submission.

- Rolling submission can be accepted.
- Author can demand us to extend the date for their submission.

We accept a diverse range of articles, including research papers, reviews, case reports, case studies, opinions, perspectives, and images. Please make sure to include a cover letter with your submission.

To streamline our publication process, we kindly request your immediate response. Please confirm your participation within the next 24 hours to help us avoid additional follow-ups.

Your contribution will not only enrich our journal but will also continue to highlight your significant impact on the journal field and your profile. We are confident that your expertise will shine in our upcoming issue.

Thank you in advance for your prompt attention to this matter. We look forward to your positive response and are excited about the possibility of featuring your work.

Warmest regards,

Henry Jackson
