Dear Tushar Sen-

Thanks for bringing this matter to us. I am sorry that you used unprofessional language. We take such matters very seriously.

We are warning you here that using unprofessional language, making accusations, and belimihsing reputations of highly respected entities will not help in finding out what has happened and may entail serious consequences.

Why did you not inform us of the matter when you received such a message from such a reviewer?

Anyway, such matters are dealt with by a special division in Wiley, which I am sure will contact you and collect the needed information.
